

graffiti

MARCH 2006

Comments about Graffiti?

Please contact Kelley Bachli at kelley.bachli@libraries.claremont.edu

WORKSHOPS

Finding the Articles You Need
Mon, Mar 6, 6:30-7:30 pm

Using the Web for Research
Thur, Mar 9, 6:30-7:30 pm

Using RefWorks*RefWorks 1

Tue, Mar 21, 6:30-8 pm

RefWorks 2

Thur, Mar 23, 6:30-7:30 pm

Research in Mathematics

Mon, Mar 6, 11:00 am-noon

Thur, Mar 23, 3:00-4:00 pm

Introduction to Geographic Information Systems (GIS)

March 20th 8:30 - Noon

GIS & Census

March 27th 8:30 - Noon

Workshops are held in Honnold/ Mudd Library. For more information, see the website or ask at the H/M Information desk.

HOOP SKIRTS, CORSETS AND CALLING CARDS
CHECK OUT THE MACPHERSON COLLECTION

The Macpherson Collection By and About Women is one of the “star” collections at Denison Library. The collection is focused in four thematic areas: Emancipation and Reform, Domestic History, Westward Expansion, and Women in the Humanist Tradition. Some of the items in the collection may be checked out, while others are part of our special collections and located in the Macpherson Treasure Room. Most requested from the Macpherson Treasure Room, and perhaps most fascinating, are the women’s magazines and etiquette books from the nineteenth century. The magazines are often beautifully illustrated with “fashion plates” that detail the period’s most chic and trendy clothing and hairstyles. The etiquette books offer tips on manners and other women’s topics, including beauty, housewifery, home medical treatments, and proper exercises for ladies.

To search for materials in the Macpherson Treasure Room use the Blais online catalog’s advanced search screen. Start with a broad keyword search on your topic and limit it to “Denison Special Collections.”

Macpherson Treasure Room materials will be included in your results and will have the location code “DEN MAC TR.”

In addition to the books and journals listed in Blais, there are other kinds of materials in the collection, such as original photographs and letters, which are not cataloged. To find materials that are not in Blais, or if you need help finding something relevant to your topic, just email or stop by Denison Library and a librarian will be happy to assist you.

Kelley Bachli
Reference Librarian,
Denison Library

“Godey’s
Paris Fashions.
Americanised.”
Godey’s Lady’s Book,
August 1846.
From the Macpherson
Treasure Room,
Denison Library

FROM THE ARCHIVES

One of the first graduating classes of physics majors, Harvey Mudd, 1961. HMC was chartered in 1955 and is now celebrating its 50th anniversary.

HMC Yearbook, 1961, Honnold/Mudd Library, Special Collections

EXHIBITS AT THE LIBRARIES*Mozart at 250

February 17 – March 27, Honnold Library, 2nd Floor

In 2006 the musical world celebrates the 250th birthday of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. In recognition of his legacy, this exhibit features facsimiles of his autograph scores dating from his first keyboard compositions to the Requiem. The exhibit also includes information about the Mozart conference to be held at Scripps College, March 24-26.

2005 Annual Western Books Exhibit from the Rounce & Coffin Club

February 13 – March 10, Honnold Library, 2nd Floor

The members of the Rounce & Coffin Club have chosen the best-designed books printed and published in the western United States in 2005, showcasing several outstanding examples of works produced by fine press printers and book artists using a wide variety of styles.

Zones of Activity

January 23 – March 19, Denison Library

An exhibit of 45 artists’ books from Denison Library’s Special Collections was curated by the Core III class at Scripps College taught by Professor Maryatt.

Mozart, age 6

Lois Morrison, Endangered Species, 1999